HEAD COACH DAVE DIIANNI

Dave Dilanni enters his 12th season as head coach for the University of Iowa women's soccer program. Dilanni was tabbed as the fifth coach in program history on May 17, 2014, coming to Iowa following an 11-year head coaching stint at Grand Valley State. Dilanni was inducted to the Grand Valley State Hall of Fame in November of 2024.

Dilanni, a native of Ontario, Canada, has amassed a 334-95-44 career record. He guided Grand Valley State to three NCAA Division II National Championships, nine-consecutive Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletics Conference (GLIAC) titles, seven Final Four appearances in eight seasons and 11 straight NCAA Tournament berths while coaching 21 All-Americans. Dilanni's .895 winning percentage was tops in NCAA Division II history.

Last season the Hawkeyes posted a 15-3-4 record, including an 8-2-1 conference record that had the Hawkeyes finished third in the Big Ten regular season standings, tying the program record for the lowest finish in the Big Ten regular season standings. Iowa started out the year 10-0-3, marking a program record for the most consecutive games without suffering a loss. After defeating Indiana, 1-0 and moving to 10-0-3 the Hawkeye rose to No. 9 in team rankings, marking the highest rank in program history. Throughout the entire season Iowa stayed ranked in the top 25, something that previously had never been done in program history.

Iowa earned a three-seed in the Big Ten Tournament where they fall to Washington, 4-5 in PKs. The Hawkeyes were tabbed a three-seed in the NCAA Tournament, the highest seed in program history. Iowa hosted Missouri State at Iowa Soccer Complex, marking just the second time the Hawkeyes hosted a home NCAA Tournament game in program history. Iowa defeated Missouri State, 2-1. Iowa then traveled to Los Angeles where they defeated Georgetown, 1-0, as Meike Ingles' goal in the 54th minute would prove to be the game winner. The win marked the first time in program history that the Hawkeyes advanced to the Round of 16. Iowa fell to Virginia Tech, 1-0, in the Round of 16. Iowa finished the season ranked No. 12 in the United Soccer Coaches Poll and No. 14 in Top Drawer Soccer's Poll.

Throughout the season the Hawkeye defense allowed just 12 goals, breaking the previous program low by four goals. Iowa posted 12 shutouts, one shy of the 13 shutouts that were posted in 2023. Graduate goalkeeper Macy Enneking's goals against average of .541 ranked 12th in the nation. Enneking was tied for seventh in the nation in shutouts.

After her six-save performance against Washington in the Big Ten Tournament, Enneking was named to the Big Ten All-Tournament team for the third time in her career. Enneking's three selections are the most in program history as she is the only Hawkeye to be named to the team more than once. Enneking would finish her Hawkeye career with the must shutouts and victories as a Hawkeye. Her 226 career saves rank fifth all time in program history.

Four Hawkeyes earned All-Big Ten postseason honors, marking the most in program history. Maggie Johnston and Millie Greer were both named Second-Team All-Big Ten. Sofia Bush was named to the Third-Team while Berit Parten was named to the Freshman Team. Miah Schueller was named Iowa's sportsmanship award honoree.

Sofia Bush was named to the Third Team United Soccer Coaches All-North Region while Maggie Johnston was named to the Fourth Team. Bush and Johnston became the 13th and 14th Hawkeyes to receive All-Region honors.

In the classroom, 20 Hawkeyes were named to the Big Ten Academic All-Conference team marking a program record. Maggie Johnston, Kenzie Roling, and Elle Otto were all named to the CSC Academic All-District team.

The Iowa Soccer Complex was the place to be in 2024, averaging 1,479 fans per game, a program record. The Hawkeyes attendance ranked 13th in the country and second amongst Big Ten Teams.

Iowa finished 13-5-4 overall in 2023, including a 6-0-1 non-conference start and a 3-4-3 record in conference play. Iowa went 3-2-1 against ranked competition. The Hawkeyes earned the eighth and final seed to the Big Ten Tournament by a single point in the league standings before downing No. 12 Michigan State (2-1), No. 5 Penn State (1-0) and No. 12 Wisconsin (1-0) en route to their second trophy in four seasons. Iowa was the lowest seed in Big Ten history to win the conference tournament.

Following the Big Ten Tournament Title, Iowa ascended to the highest major national rankings in program history, jumping to No. 14 in the College Soccer News ranking and No. 17 according to Top Drawer Soccer. Iowa finished the regular season at 30th in the RPI, earning an NCAA Tournament fifth-seed.

The Hawkeyes earned the second NCAA Tournament win in program history with a victory over Bucknell, 2-0. The match was played before a program-record crowd of 2,639 at the Iowa Soccer Complex. Iowa fell in the Second Round to fourth-seeded Georgia, 3-2, at Riggs Field in Clemson, South Carolina.

The Hawkeye defense earned a program record 13 shutouts during the 2023 season. Iowa outscored opponents 36-17 with stifling advantages in shots (307-164) and shots on goal (149-75).

Senior goalkeeper Macy Enneking tied for fifth in the nation in shutouts, posting a new school single-season record 12.5 clean sheets. Enneking finished the year ranked third for career shutouts (22) and fourth in career wins (26) among all-time Hawkeye goalkeepers.

Fourteen different Hawkeyes contributed to Iowa's 36 goals. Senior Kelli McGroarty, a transfer student from La Salle, led the way with 18 points. McGroarty and seventh-year Josie Durr tied for an Iowa-best seven goals, with juniors Elle Otto (13) and Kenzie Roling (11) also contributing double-digit point figures.

Fifth-year Samantha Cary was named Second Team All-Big Ten. Freshman Sofia Bush was an All-Big Ten Freshman, while redshirt junior Zoë Bessert earned conference sportsmanship honors.

Cary, Enneking and McGroarty were All-Big Ten Tournament Team honorees. Cary was named Defensive Player of the Big Ten Tournament. Cary and Enneking were each named First Team All-North Region, becoming just the third and fourth Hawkeyes to earn first team regional honors.

In the classroom, five Hawkeyes were named CSC Academic-All District, a program record. Samantha Cary became Iowa's first United Soccer Coaches Scholar All-American. Fourteen Hawkeyes were named Academic All-Big Ten.

Iowa finished with a 5-6-7 overall record in 2022, posting a 2-3-5 mark in Big Ten play. Hailey Rydberg earned All-Big Ten Third Team recognition, leading the Hawkeyes with 14 offensive points on five goals and four assists. Rydberg tied senior Caroline Halonen with a team-best five goals, while sophomore Elle Otto led the way in assists (5).

The Hawkeyes were once again stout defensively, led by senior captains Samantha Cary and Sara Wheaton. Iowa allowed just one goal per game on average en route to six clean sheets.

Notable victories included a 2-1 upset over No. 13 Northwestern on the road, good for the fifth top-15 victory in program history. Iowa also defeated Nebraska, 4-0, to improve to 4-1-1 against the Huskers in the last six meetings; that represents a corner turned in the rivalry, as the Hawkeyes were 0-10-0 against the Cornhuskers prior to 2017.

In the classroom, Iowa had 16 Academic All-Big Ten selections; four Hawkeyes (Hailey Rydberg, Jenny Cape, Samantha Cary and Addie Bundy) earned CSC Academic All-District recognition. Cape was one of two Hawkeye athletes selected to receive the Big Ten Postgraduate Scholarship, awarded primarily for academic excellence.

The Iowa Student-Athlete Advisory Committee named Cape the University of Iowa Women's Breakthrough Athlete of the Year, and also selected Cary for Women's Hawkeye of the Year.

In 2021, Dilanni led Iowa to a 12-6-2 season and a winning 5-4-1 record in Big Ten play. The Hawkeyes advanced to the Big Ten Tournament semifinal with a 1-0 first round victory at Michigan State before falling to Rutgers in Piscataway. Five Hawkeyes earned Big Ten Conference postseason honors. Sara Wheaton was named to the All-Big Ten second team, while Alyssa Walker and Hailey Rydberg picked up third-team honors. Addie Bundy was a unanimous selection on the All-Freshman team and Riley Whitaker was one of 14 players to earn the conference sportsmanship award.

The 2021 postseason team marks the first time in 21 years Iowa had three players named to one of the top three All-Big Ten teams. In 2000, Sarah Lynch (first team), Julie Atkocaitis (second team) and Kate Walse each earned all-conference recognition.

Hailey Rydberg, Alyssa Walker and Sara Wheaton were also named to the United Soccer Coaches North Region Third-Team. The all-region honor was the first for all three players and marked just the second time in program history three Hawkeyes have been named to an all-region team in the same season. Cloe Lacasse, Melanie Pickert and Alex Melin were recognized in 2013.

Dilanni earned his 300th career win on Oct. 21, a 1-0 win over Minnesota. Dilanni is one of two active Big Ten coaches to reach 300 career wins, along with Nebraska's John Walker. Iowa's win in the opening round of the conference tournament at Michigan State was Dilanni's 80th win at the University of Iowa, tying Ron Rainey as the program's all-time leader.

The Iowa defense posted seven shutouts and held 18 opponents to two scores or fewer through 20 games, while eleven Hawkeyes contributed to 31 goals on the offensive side of the ball, which ranked third in the Big Ten. On Oct. 14, 2021, Iowa posted a 4-3 victory over Nebraska in which the Hawkeyes came back from a three-score deficit to earn the largest comeback in program history.

On the academic front, 19 Hawkeyes earned Big Ten Fall Academic All-Conference team recognition, matching the school record for the second straight season and the third time in program history.

The Hawkeyes started the 2020 season slowly after losing 12 seniors from the 2019 NCAA Tournament team. After going winless in their first seven games, the tide began to turn midway through the season and Iowa was playing its best soccer when it mattered most. With an expanded Big Ten postseason schedule due to league-only scheduling because of COVID, Dilanni led the Hawkeyes to wins over second-seeded Illinois, third-seeded Minnesota in the Big Ten Regional weekend. The team followed with a road win at top-seeded Penn State in the Big Ten Tournament semifinals before downing third-seeded Wisconsin to claim the program's first-ever Big Ten title.

The win in Happy Valley was the first for the program in school history and the fourth-ranked Nittany Lions were the highest ranked opponent Iowa defeated all-time. Two freshmen — forward Meike Ingles and goalkeeper Macy Enneking — were named the Big Ten Tournament Most Outstanding Offensive and Defensive Players, respectively. Ingles scored three-game winners in the tournament, while Enneking posted two shutouts and made 14 saves.

As a result, the Hawkeyes earned their second straight NCAA Tournament berth, and they continued to make history. Shipped to North Carolina, Iowa tallied a 1-0 victory over Campbell — on the Camels' home turf — to notch the first NCAA Tournament win in the record books. Iowa had third-seeded UCLA on the ropes in the Round of 32 before surrendering two goals late in a 2-1 defeat.

Iowa finished the season with a 7-9-1 record, but all seven of the victories came in the team's final 10 games. Enneking was a unanimous Big Ten All-Freshman team honoree. Academically, Iowa matched a school record with 19 Academic All-Big Ten selections, eight Hawkeyes were Big Ten Distinguished Scholars, the program had 31 Dean's List honorees (in fall and spring semesters), and the program earned the United Soccer Team Academic Award, posting a 3.49 team grade point average.

Dilanni led the Hawkeyes to one of the best seasons in program history in 2019. Iowa tied a school record, winning its first nine games of the season, which included road wins at No. 14 NC State and Notre Dame. It resulted in the Hawkeyes achieving the highest ranking — No. 19 — in program history.

Iowa finished with 15 wins to tie the single-season record and it earned an at-large berth into the NCAA Tournament for the second time in program history. The Hawkeyes won seven games in Big Ten play to tie a program record and the fifth place finish was tied for the second-highest finish in school history. Iowa also finished with a school-record nine victories at the Iowa Soccer Complex.

The Hawkeyes won with a potent offense and a stout defense. Iowa finished with 45 goals in 2019 with an NCAA-best 16 different goal scorers. The team ranked second in the Big Ten and 26th nationally in scoring, while posting eight shutouts. Senior Claire Graves finished had 14 wins in 2019 — the second-most in school history — and finished with a school record 37 victories in four years.

At season's end, three Hawkeyes — Natalie Winters, Devin Burns, and Gianna Gourley — earned All-Big Ten recognition. Winters became the first player to earn all-league honors all four seasons and she also garnered all-region honors for a second straight season.

Academically, the team was just as successful as Iowa was the only school nationally to have two first-team Academic All-Americans in seniors Kaleigh Haus and Hannah Drkulec. The Hawkeyes also boasted three United Soccer Coaches Scholar All-North/Central Region selections (Claire Graves, Drkulec, and Isabella Blackman), earned the United Soccer Team Award, and had a school-record 19 Academic All-Big Ten honorees, including four players with a perfect 4.0 GPA.

In 2018, Dilanni led the Hawkeyes to an 8-7-3 overall record and a 4-5-2 mark in Big Ten play. Iowa was in Big Ten Tournament contention until the final game, but fell short after battling Northwestern to a 1-1 draw. Winters was a third-team all-region and third-team All-Big Ten selection — Iowa's first all-region honoree since 2014.

In the classroom, Iowa earned the United Soccer Team Academic Award for a 12th straight season and the Hawkeyes had two Google Cloud Academic All-Americans — the first two in program history. Haus was a first-team selection; Drkulec earned second-team honors. Iowa also had 10 players earn Academic All-Big Ten honors, 25 players with a 3.0 GPA or better, 14 Dean's List, and four President's List honorees during the spring semester.

In May, 2019, Dilanni led the Iowa soccer program on its first foreign tour in its history. The Hawkeyes traveled to Germany, Sweden, and Denmark for a 10-day tour.

During his fourth year in Iowa City, Dilanni led the Hawkeyes back to the Big Ten Tournament for the first time since 2014. Iowa went 9-8-2 overall and tied for eighth in the conference with a 4-5-2 record. It was a four place improvement and the team finished with a plus-eight goal differential.

Iowa was led by its underclassmen as 24 of the team's 31 goals were scored by the sophomore class. Sophomore forward Devin Burns led the team with nine goals — the most by a Hawkeye since 2014 — and she finished with a team-best 23 points, which rank in the top 10 in school history. Graves posted seven shutouts, including back-to-back in victories over No. 23 Rutgers and Maryland to earn Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week honors.

Winters earned her second career Big Ten recognition, being tabbed as a third-team All-Big Ten selection. Academically, the Hawkeyes earned the United Soccer Coaches Team Academic Award for the 11th straight year, and the team had 15 Academic All-Big Ten honorees.

In his third season in Iowa City, the Hawkeyes posted an 8-11-0 record with a young team featuring eight freshmen and 12 underclassmen. Winters started all 19 games and was named to the Big Ten All-Freshman Team, Graves started every game in goal, and Burns was third on the team in goals.

Iowa opened the season with six victories in its first seven games before losing 10 of its final 12 games. Six of the losses were decided by a single goal. Academically, the Hawkeyes thrived, as 16 student-athletes earned Academic All-Big Ten recognition, tying a program record.

In his second season at Iowa, Dilanni led the Hawkeyes to a 7-10-1 overall record. Senior Hannah Clark led the Big Ten in saves (105), saves per game (5.83), and tied for sixth in shutouts (six). Clark ended her career as the winningest goalkeeper in program history (36 victories) and was tops in the record books in career shutouts (26) and third in career saves (321).

Dilanni's squad earned the NSCAA Ethics and Sportsmanship Award and six student-athletes garnered Academic All-Big Ten recognition.

On the recruiting front, Dilanni's 2016 class garnered national recognition, being ranked 28th by BigSoccer.com.

In his inaugural Hawkeye season, Dilanni led the team to a 14-7-1 overall and a 7-5-1 Big Ten record to notch the program's third top-five league finish since 2011. The seven Big Ten victories tied the program record for Big Ten wins in a single season and the 14 wins were the second-most in school history.

After entering the Big Ten Tournament as the No. 5 seed, Iowa posted victories over No. 23 Rutgers and Northwestern to advance to the tournament championship game for a second straight season. Two seniors — Cloe Lacasse and Melanie Pickert — capped their Hawkeye careers with first-team All-Big Ten and first-team all-region honors. They were the first pair in school history to earn first-team all-conference honors in the same season and the first two players to garner first-team all-region recognition.

The Hawkeyes finished 2014 with a school-record 14 shutouts in 22 games to rank 20th nationally with a .545 shutout percentage. Iowa's defense also was in the top-35 in the country in saves percentage (31st, .838) and goals against average (35th, .754).

Academically, the Hawkeyes garnered the NSCAA Team Academic Award for an eighth straight season and nine soccer student-athletes garnered Academic All-Big Ten honors. Seniors Caitlin Brown and Emily Scott were also received Scholar All-Region recognition.

Dilanni came to Iowa City following an NCAA championship season in his final year at Grand Valley State, where he guided the Lakers to their third national title in five seasons and was named the National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) Coach of the Year for a third time. Grand Valley scored the second-most goals in program history (88), matched a program-high with 21 shutouts en route to winning the most games in school history. The team finished 24-0-1, claiming both the GLIAC regular season and tournament titles

The Lakers opened the season with 13-straight shutouts, which matched the second-longest streak in Division II history, and five student-athletes garnered All-America recognition at season's end.

Dilanni led the Lakers to a 22-0-4 record in 2009 en route to his first national championship before winning a second-straight title in 2010. He was honored as the CaptainU Division II Women's Soccer Coach of the Year in 2009, and he coached the Division II National Player of the Year honoree in each season (Irie Dennis, 2009; Jenna Wenglinski, 2010).

Dilanni took over the Laker program in 2003 and swiftly guided Grand Valley State to a then-school best record of 17-2-2 to earn the program's first-ever NCAA Tournament berth. In year three, Dilanni led the Lakers to their first conference and NCAA Great Lakes Regional Championship, finishing 19-3 overall, and his team finished eighth in the national poll.

By year four, Dilanni led Grand Valley State to the school's first NCAA Division II National Championship game, finishing 19-2-1 overall. A year later, the Lakers made a second-straight NCAA Final Four appearance, posting a 17-0-0 mark in the regular season before finishing 21-1-1 overall.

Dilanni joined Grand Valley State after a seven-year run as head coach of the Jackson Lumen Christi High School women's soccer team. He also spent three years as an assistant coach at Hillsdale College, where he helped begin the men's and women's soccer programs.

Dilanni spent seven years working with the Olympic Development Program in Michigan, training and developing the highest level of soccer in the state. He coached the team to four Region 2 and four ODP national championships.

Dilanni, a USSF B-licensed coach, earned his associate's degree from Seneca College in 1993 and his bachelor's degree from Spring Arbor University in 1997. Dilanni was inducted into the Spring Arbor University Athletics Hall of Fame in 2024. He and his wife, Kristy, have two daughters, Karissa and Kelsey.

ASSISTANT COACH J.P VALADARES

Assistant Coach J.P Valadares enters his third season at the University of Iowa.

Last season Valadares helped guide the Hawkeyes to the program's first ever appearance in the Sweet 16. Iowa was ranked in the top 25 throughout the whole season, finishing 11th in the NCAA RPI and 12th in the United Soccer Coaches poll. Iowa posted a 15-3-4 record in 2024, including an 8-2-1 record in Big Ten Conference play. Iowa finished third in the Big Ten Regular season standings, tying a program record.

A set piece specialist, Valadares' plays were fundamental for Iowa's success. The set plays amassed a total of 12 goals scored and zero goals against. Bringing the total to 20 goals between the two seasons since being tasked with it. Two of those goals were in the NCAA Tournament, one being the goal that punched Iowa's ticket to the Sweet 16 vs. Georgetown.

Goalkeeper Macy Enneking flourished under Valadares, becoming the first Iowa player to be nominated to the Hermann Trophy watchlist, the highest award for a women's soccer player in the country. Enneking was also named a player to watch by the United Soccer Coaches, marking a program first. Enneking was selected to the Big Ten All-Tournament team for the third time in her career following her six-save performance against Washington. Enneking is the only Hawkeye with multiple selections to the team. Enneking finished her career with Iowa as the all-time win's leader, and all-time shutouts leader. 25 of those shutouts came under Valadares' coaching. Enneking is in the B1G record books most career shutouts with 33.5.

Throughout the season the Hawkeye defense allowed just 12 goals, breaking the previous program low by four goals. Iowa posted 12 shutouts, one shy of the 13 shutouts that were posted in 2023. Enneking's goals against average of .541 ranked 12th in the nation. Enneking was tied for seventh in the nation in shutouts.
The Iowa Soccer Complex was the place to be in 2024, averaging 1,479 fans per game, a program record. The Hawkeyes attendance ranked 13th in the country and second amongst Big Ten Teams.

In his first season, Valadares helped guide Iowa to the second Big Ten Tournament Championship in program history. The Hawkeyes downed three ranked opponents for the first time during the postseason run.

Under Valadares' guidance in 2023 senior goalkeeper Macy Enneking tied for fifth in the nation in shutouts, posting a new school single season record 12.5 clean sheets. Enneking finished the year ranked third for career shutouts (22) and fourth in career wins (26) among all-time Hawkeye goalkeepers. Enneking became one of four players in program history selected for First Team All-North Region honors and was an All-Big Ten Tournament Team selection. She was an Academic All-Big Ten honoree and earned weekly recognition on Sept. 5 by Top Drawer Soccer and Oct. 3 from the Big Ten Conference.

Iowa finished 13-5-4 overall in 2023, including a 6-0-1 non-conference start and a 3-4-3 record in conference play. Iowa went 3-2-1 against ranked competition. The Hawkeyes earned the eighth and final seed to the Big Ten Tournament by a single point in the league standings before downing No. 12 Michigan State (2-1), No. 5 Penn State (1-0) and No. 12 Wisconsin (1-0) en route to their second trophy in four seasons. Iowa was the lowest seed in Big Ten history to win the conference tournament.

Following the Big Ten Tournament Title, Iowa ascended to the highest major national rankings in program history, jumping to No. 14 in the College Soccer News ranking and No. 17 according to Top Drawer Soccer. Iowa finished the regular season at 30th in the RPI, earning an NCAA Tournament fifth-seed.

The Hawkeyes earned the second NCAA Tournament win in program history with a victory over Bucknell, 2-0. The match was played before a program-record crowd of 2,639 at the Iowa Soccer Complex. Iowa fell in the Second Round to fourth-seeded Georgia, 3-2, at Riggs Field in Clemson, South Carolina.

The Hawkeye defense earned a program record 13 shutouts during the 2023 season. Iowa outscored opponents 36-17 with stifling advantages in shots (307-164) and shots on goal (149-75).

Fourteen different Hawkeyes contributed to Iowa's 36 goals. Senior Kelli McGroarty, a transfer student from La Salle, led the way with 18 points. McGroarty and seventh-year Josie Durr tied for an Iowa-best seven goals, with juniors Elle Otto (13) and Kenzie Roling (11) also contributing double-digit point figures.

Fifth-year Samantha Cary was named Second Team All-Big Ten. Freshman Sofia Bush was an All-Big Ten Freshman, while redshirt junior Zoë Bessert earned conference sportsmanship honors. In the classroom, five Hawkeyes were named CSC Academic-All District, a program record.

J.P Valadares joined the Hawkeyes after three seasons as an assistant coach at The University of Southern Mississippi. Throughout his time with Southern Miss the program never missed a conference tournament, won the first regular season title in school history, and reached the conference tournament final for the 2nd time in the program's history. Southern Miss also finished #37 in the RPI in the 2021 season. Programs highest RPI to date.

With a vast knowledge of the South American recruiting landscape, Valadares recruited Ilana Izquierdo. She led the team in scoring as a freshman with seven goals and seven assists in the 2021 season, was named the C- USA freshman of the year and first-team all-conference.

In the 2023 season, Acting as a Head Coach for one game, versus. #9 Ole Miss, Valadares tie is to date the best result in the history between Southern Miss & Ole Miss (0-9-1)

Valadares was the first goalkeepers coach to lead the team to back-to-back seasons with a save percentage of .800 or higher. In 2022, the Golden Eagles set a program-best .860 save percentage.

Over his first two seasons, the Golden Eagles posted .95 goals against average, an improvement from 1.38 goals against over the previous three years. Valadares coached his keepers to a school record .83 goals against average during the 2021 season.

Valadares was the third coach in C-USA history to guide multiple goalkeepers to conference goalkeeper of the week recognition during the same season. Under the guidance of Valadares, Kendell Mindnich earned multiple weekly honors, as well as all-conference and all-conference tournament recognition.

Prior to Southern Miss, Valadares spent the 2018 and 2019 seasons as goalkeepers coach for the Pearl River Community College men's and women's soccer programs.

During his stint at PRCC, Valadares helped develop some of the top goalkeepers in the MACJC. Across both teams, Valadares goalkeepers tabbed four conference weekly awards and one All-Region XXIII selection. Two of his goalkeepers moved on to play in higher levels following the Junior College route. Paige Horsnell turned professional in England, and Maddux Francis joined the North Carolina State men's team in the ACC.

The men's and women's teams each advanced to the conference semifinals in both of his two seasons at Pearl River.

Valadares has served as director of goalkeepers for the Olympic Development Program (ODP) in Mississippi and also was part of the ODP South Region staff.

ASSISTANT COACH J.P VALADARES

Prior to coaching, Valadares was a decorated collegiate and youth player. He competed for William Carey University during the 2011, leading the Crusaders to the 2011 NAIA Final Four.

At the youth level, Valadares played for the America Futebol Clube's U-17 & U16 team, which was at the time a first division club in Brazil.

A Brazil native, Valadares returned home to attend law school at Pontifical Catholic University of Minas Gerais in Belo Horizonte, Brazil, after his freshman season at William Carey. In 2014, he returned to William Carey to finish his bachelor's.

He holds coaching licenses from U.S Soccer, CONMEBOL, English F.A, FAW, United Soccer Coaches, and most recently turned into a Set Piece Specialist with MBP School of Coaching.
Valadares now has a Masters of Education in Sports Administration from William Carey University. He is married to wife Gillian Valadares.

ASSISTANT COACH KYLE VENTER

Assistant Coach Kyle Venter is entering his third season at Iowa. Venter assists with all aspects of the Hawkeye program and also helps spearhead the Hawkeye player evaluation and recruiting process.

Venter joined the Hawkeyes following his most recent stint as Interim Head Coach at the University of Cincinnati.

Last season, Iowa posted a 15-3-4 overall record including an 8-2-1 Big Ten Conference regular season record. The 15 wins tied a program record while the eight conference wins set a program record. The Hawkeyes finished 3rd in the Big Ten regular season, tying a program record.

Iowa was tabbed as a three-seed in the NCAA Tournament, earning the highest seed in program history and marking their second time hosting a home NCAA Tournament game in program history. The Hawkeyes defeated Missouri State, 2-1, in the opening round. Iowa then traveled to Los Angeles to take on Georgetown where they won, 1-0, to punch their ticket to the program's first round of 16 appearance. Iowa would fall to Virginia Tech, 1-0, in the Round of 16.

Four Hawkeyes earned All-Big Ten postseason honors marking a program record. Maggie Johnston and Millie Greer were both named Second-Team All-Big Ten wile Sofia Bush was named Third-Team All-Big Ten. Berit Parten was named to the All-Freshman team while Miah Schueller was Iowa's sportsmanship award honoree.

Sofia Bush and Maggie Johnston both earned United Soccer Coaches All-North Region Team honors. Bush was named to the third-team while Johnston was named to the fourth team.

Iowa's defense allowed just 12 goals on the season, breaking the previous program record by four goals. The Hawkeyes posted 12 shutouts, one off the 13 shutouts posted in 2023.

The Iowa Soccer Complex was the place to be in 2024, averaging 1,479 fans per game, a program record. The Hawkeyes attendance ranked 13th in the country and second amongst Big Ten Teams.

Venter was one of 10 assistant coaches named to Top Drawer Soccer's "Women's D1 Assistant Coaches to Know" in 2024.

In his first season, Venter helped guide Iowa to the second Big Ten Tournament Championship in program history. The Hawkeyes downed three ranked opponents for the first time during the postseason run.

Prior to his experience at Cincinnati (June 2022-January 2023), Venter held assistant coaching positions at Florida during the 2021 season and Arizona from Nov. 2020 to May 2021. Venter got his coaching start at Arizona as a volunteer assistant in 2019.

While in Gainesville, Venter mentored goalkeeper Alexa Goldberg in her first season as a starter for the Gators. Under his tutelage, Goldberg led the SEC with 4.80 saves per game, including 13 saves against No. 20 South Florida.

At Arizona, Venter helped his team reach the second round of the 2019 NCAA Tournament. 10 shutouts by the Wildcat defense that year marked a program-best for Arizona since the 2016 season.

Over his first two seasons, Venter helped improve Arizona's goals against average from 1.41 to 0.79, including six shutouts during the shortened Spring 2021 season. He helped the Wildcats to a winning 21-13-3 (.611) record over that span. Venter was elevated from volunteer to assistant coach following the spring campaign.

Venter played seven years professionally following a storied collegiate career at the University of New Mexico. At New Mexico, Venter became the program's first three-time All-American and, as a senior, helped lead the Lobos to the 2013 NCAA College Cup.

Venter was a Missouri Athletic Club Hermann Cup Trophy semifinalist in 2013, also picking up that season's Conference USA Player and Defensive Player of the Year honors. He also earned spots on the 2012 NSCAA Scholar All-America and 2013 Conference USA All-Academic teams.

Venter finished his career as New Mexico's all-time leader in minutes played (7,859) and was the first Lobo ever to earn Senior CLASS Award Team honors. New Mexico advanced to NCAA postseason play during each of Venter's seasons in Albuquerque.

As a professional, Venter was drafted 23rd overall in the 2013 Major League Soccer SuperDraft by the Los Angeles Galaxy. He would help Los Angeles to an MLS Cup victory that season.

Venter also played professional for the Tulsa Roughnecks (USL), the Ottawa Fury (NASL/USL) and Penn FC (USL). He was captain for the USL League One sides, FC Tucson and the Richmond Kickers.

Venter was trusted as the USL Player's Association team representative for FC Tucson and Richmond, where he advised and coordinated clubs through a successful unionization process for all USL League One athletes. Venter also helped teams successfully negotiate a Return to Play Agreement between the USLPA and USL League One during the COVID-19 pandemic.

Venter graduated with a bachelor's in Business degree in Human Resources Management and Organizational Leadership from the University of New Mexico in December of 2013.

ASSISTANT COACH MADDI MOON

Maddi Moon enters her first season at Iowa. Moon joins the Hawkeyes after spending the past five seasons as the head coach at the University of Missouri-St. Louis.

In 2024, the Tritons posted a 14-4-3 record including a 9-3-2 conference record. USML won the GLVC Conference Tournament before falling to Grand Valley State in the opening round of the Division II NCAA Tournament. The conference tournament victory marked the programs first time ever winning the tournament.

Prior to being named the head coach at UMSL Moon spent three years as an assistant coach at Central Missouri from 2017-19. Moon's first coaching stint came at Missouri Southern where she was an assistant during the 2016 season.

In Moon's first season as an assistant at Central Missouri, the Jennies posted a 26-0 record as they won the 2017 Division II National Championship. Moon was a member of the United Soccer Coaches National Staff of the Year as well as the United Soccer Coaches Central Region Coaching Staff of the Year. In her three seasons UCM posted a 64-8-2 record where they also won the 2018 NCAA Central Region Championship as well as making the Sweet 16 in 2019.

Moon played collegiately at the University of Central Arkansas before playing one season professionally with the Melbourne Victory.

Moon graduated in 2015 from Central Arkansas with a bachelor's in business administration in Marketing. Moon then earned her Master of Education with an emphasis in Sports Psychology from the University of Missouri in 2016.

Maddi is married to Logan Moon where they have one daughter, Marlee.

DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS ADDIE BUNDY

Director of operations Addie Bundy enters her first season at the Univeristy of Iowa.

Bundy spent three seasons as a soccer student-athlete at Iowa from 2021-23. Bundy earned unanimous Big Ten All-Freshman team honors in her first season as a Hawkeye. In her career, she started 19 games and tallied six assists and two goals. Bundy was a part of the Big Ten Tournament Championship and NCAA Tournament team in 2023.

Off the field, Bundy was a two-time Academic All-Big Ten selection and was named a CoSIDA Academic All-District honoree in 2022.

Bundy returned to Iowa City after spending 2024 as a support specialist for Visit Fort Collins, a destination marketing organization focused on promoting Fort Collins, Colorado. She also served as an assistant soccer coach at Rocky Mountain High School in 2024.

Bundy graduated with a bachelor's degree in finance from the University of Iowa in 2024.

Hawkeyes and Beyond

IOWA CITY, Iowa — University of Iowa women's soccer alumni are represented across professional leagues in the United States, England, Portugal, Iceland, Sweden and the Netherlands.

In January 2024, Samantha Cary ('23) became the first Hawkeye selected in the NWSL Draft. Iowa's all-time minutes leader was selected 48th overall in Round Four by Racing Louisville. Cary was one of nine Big Ten players selected in the draft from five schools (Iowa, Ohio State, Michigan State, Penn State and Wisconsin).

Cary currently plays with the Swedish club IFK Norrköping.

At the defender position, Cary led Iowa to a program single-season record 13 shutouts in 2023, the most in the Big Ten and tied for fifth nationally. Iowa also set a new program-best for goals against average (0.76). Both records had stood since Dilanni's first season in 2014. Cary was a three-time Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week in 2023 and was named Defensive Player of the Big Ten Tournament.

Cary is Iowa's all-time leader in games played (97), starts (96) and minutes (8,322). She made things happen on both sides of the pitch, tallying five goals and 11 assists as a Hawkeye.

Cloé Lacasse ('14) became Iowa Soccer's first Olympian last summer playing for the Canadian women's national team at the 2024 Paris Olympics.

Lacasse plays professionally for Arsenal. She is among the top players in program history, tying for first in career points (112) and ranking second for both goals (46) and assists (26). Lacasse also leads Iowa in career shots (306) and was Iowa's scoring leader all four years, leading her teams to back-to-back Big Ten Tournament Title appearances in 2013 and 2014.

In the 2024 season the Hawkeyes defeated Georgetown, 1-0, to advance to the Sweet 16 for the first time in program history. Iowa finished the season ranked No. 12 as they posted a 15-3-4 overall record, tying their program record in wins.

2024 ICELAND INTERNATIONAL TRIP

The Hawkeyes traveled to Iceland in May 2024. The team had the opportunity to compete against Icelandic professional clubs, grow team chemistry and explore Icelandic culture and scenery. Iowa Soccer works to take advantage of the NCAA allowance for one international trip every four years. This trip was made possible by the generous donation of Janice Strang.
